Main Street Consulting Services

Helping Communities and Organizations Identify Revitalization Issues and Develop Successful Solutions

The National Trust Main Street Center's™ consulting and training services help communities meet the challenges and opportunities facing their downtowns and neighborhood commercial districts. Our goal is to provide communities with the tools and information for successful, sustainable revitalization. We work with each client to design services that meet local needs and resources. Our skills and expertise help communities develop and strengthen community-based commercial district revitalization efforts and implement highly effective, successful revitalization projects. The Main Street Consulting Services staff offers a comprehensive range of services to traditional downtowns and neighborhood business districts in cities, small towns, high-growth communities, and inner-ring suburbs. We provide consulting, technical assistance, and training to new and existing Main Street programs, business improvement districts, community development corporations, downtown development authorities, chambers of commerce, and municipal governments. The National Trust Main Street Center works with all types of communities in all stages of revitalization. By working with the Main Street Center, your community gets the benefit of decades of expertise, in-the-trenches knowledge, and proven revitalization expertise – straight from the original Main Street source! The National Trust Main Street Center™ offers a range of consulting and training services to help communities identify revitalization issues and develop successful solutions. Why Use The Center?

The National Trust Main Street Center's consulting and training services help communities meet the challenges and opportunities facing their downtowns and neighborhood commercial districts. Our goal is to provide tools and information for successful and sustainable commercial district revitalization. We work with each client to design services that meet local needs and resources.

Our skills and expertise help communities develop and strengthen community-based commercial district revitalization efforts and to implement highly effective, successful revitalization projects. Over the years, the Center has developed a time-tested set of standard services to help communities start or enhance their revitalization programs. In addition to these standard services, we also offer customized consulting and training services to meet the needs of commercial districts with unusual circumstances or highly specialized issues.

The Main Street Center works with all types of communities in all stages of revitalization. By working with the Center, your commercial district benefits from our decades of expertise, in-the-trenches knowledge, and proven revitalization know-how — all straight from the original Main Street source!

There were no minutes from the February meeting as there was not a quorum present.

Guests included current Chairman of the Board of the Chamber of Commerce Carol Glassburn and Yvette Hudson with the Historic Preservation Commission.

President David Haines discussed the possibility of Main Street sponsoring a state sanctioned BBQ contest for the 4th of July weekend. Chuck Vaughn from Cactus Canyon Old Time Photos would be researching cost projections and sponsorship opportunities.

Agenda items requiring Board approval have been tabled until the March meeting.

Next scheduled meeting is March 8th at noon at City Council Chambers.
