Arizona Early Intervention Program

Address: PO Box 5630 Flagstaff, AZ 86011

Phone: (800) 841-5201 or (928) 523-7075

Website/E-mail: www.de.state.az.us/azeip/

Contact: N/A

Services Offered: The Arizona Early Intervention Program supports families who have a child between the ages of birth to three years of age with developmental delays. This agency works with families and children who present developmental delays or established disabilities. Services offered include service coordination, evaluation, support, and therapies as needed. Referrals to the program can be made by anyone who has a concern about a child's development. Most often, referrals come from family members or pediatricians who refer the child for further evaluation.

Comments: There is no cost to the family. Private insurance or AHCCCS may be billed for therapies and other services.

Arizona State Government, Child Abuse Hotline

Phone: (888) SOS CHILD / (888) 767-2445

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Flagstaff

Address: 1338 W. Forest Meadows, Suite 130, Flagstaff, AZ 86001
Phone: (928) 774-0649
Website/E-mail: www.bbbsf.com
Contact: Kelly Walsh
Services Offered: Mentoring relationships for children ages 6 to 15 year olds in the Flagstaff and Williams areas are provided. Two programs available: School based and Community Based. Match relationships are one-to-one between a caring adult and a child.
Comments: Children are usually referred by their parents or a counselor. In the school based program, teachers usually refer children. Children and volunteers must commit to the program for a year (community based) and for the school year (school based). The school based program is offered at eight Flagstaff schools and the Williams school. Volunteers are screened and trained before getting matched with a child. Please call (928) 774-069 for more information on becoming a volunteer or getting a child enrolled in the programs.
